Growth

Please find below an overview of the development of VanEps Kunneman VanDoorne in terms of number of employees.

“This local powerhouse has offices on every island in the Dutch Caribbean and attracts praise for its capacity to handle both local and international mandates. Corporate work is a major strength for the firm, and it is able to handle large transactions for major financial organisations. It also has notable involvement in the energy sector and regularly advises government-owned companies. Its litigation department frequently undertakes insurance and employment-related issues.”
